

PHILOPTOCHOS SCHOLARSHIP

The Greek Orthodox Ladies Philoptochos Society is a women's philanthropic society whose mission is to help the poor, the destitute, the hungry, the aged, the sick, the handicapped, the victims of disaster, and offer assistance to anyone who may need the help of the church. The society promotes the charitable, benevolent, and philanthropic purposes of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America. The recipient of this scholarship should reflect current and future endeavors in the area of philanthropy.

Criteria for the scholarship award include:

- a) Attending a two or four year accredited college
- b) Academic excellence
- c) Church involvement
- d) Philanthropy essay

Student Name _____

College Attending _____

Submit with this application a copy of:

1. Personal Data Sheet/Resume including church activities
2. High School Transcript
3. 1 page (not more than 350 word) essay: How do you currently and plan to continue to infuse philanthropy into your life?

Academics, church involvement and your essay will all be weighted equally for determining the appropriate recipient.

THE DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION IS MAY 30